Please delete Paragraph [0009] and amend Paragraph [0007] in the Written Description as follows:

[0007] ~~To achieve this objective as it reads from claim 1 it is provided for~~ with A[a] weatherstrip assembly having the features as cited at the outset in accordance with the invention ~~that the~~ has a trim strip [is] provided at one end with a first hook section and at the other end with a second hook section. The second hook section is in positive contact with the retaining segment, whereas the first hook section latches to a first contact surface area of the fastener section. The retaining segment can be pivoted from the first position into the second position to counteract the effect of a restoring force when latching the first hook section to the first contact surface area.
